

i do not live in america, but i do feel as if this is an issue that is serious in nature and effects us all.
who is really in interest here, the people of the bloated mega media corperations?